

Al Zapanta, President and CEO
U.S. – Mexico Chamber of Commerce

Mr. Zapanta is President and CEO of the United States-Mexico Chamber of Commerce, which operates 9 regional offices in the United States and 8 in Mexico. Mr. Zapanta is also Founder and Chief Executive Office of PAZ Resources. Previously, he was Chief Executive Officer of PAZ Energy, a single purpose entity that participated in the DFW International Airport natural gas project. He worked in upstream operations of Atlantic Richfield Co. (ARCO Oil & Gas), where he was responsible for negotiations with U.S. and Mexican (PEMEX). Mr. Zapanta has held numerous Presidential appointments, including White House Fellow, Senate-confirmed Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Management and Administration, U.S. State Department Advisory Committee on International Trade Technology and Development, and private sector delegate to the U.S.-Mexico Partnership for Prosperity. Donald H. Rumsfeld, appointed Gen. Zapanta as Chairman of the Reserve Forces Policy Board (RFPB). Gen. Zapanta's military record includes the award of the Silver Star, 5 Bronze Stars for Valor, Purple Heart, and 30 other awards during the Vietnam War. He was awarded the Joint Service Commendation Medal for Desert Shield/Desert Storm, Restore Hope in Somalia and Restore Democracy in Haiti. He currently serves on the following boards: Board of Directors, Tyson Foods; Board of Trustees, President Gerald R. Ford Foundation and Museum; Senior Fellow, Center for Western Hemisphere Defense Studies; Chairman, Hispanic War Veterans of America.

José Zozaya, President, General Manager and Executive Representative
Kansas City Southern de México
Chairman of the Board, U.S.-Mexico Chamber of Commerce

José Zozaya was appointed President and Executive Representative for Kansas City Southern de México (KCSM) in 2006. During his eight years in the railroad sector he has reached significant achievements for the company and for the industry in Mexico. José Zozaya has over 40 years of experience in law and government relations, as well as mergers and acquisitions that have been fundamental for the construction of strategic relations between KCSM and the three levels of Government in the country. Under his leadership, the trackage rights agreement was achieved after a 12-year process which has brought major integration between the main railroad companies. Prior to KCSM, he served as legal and government relations director for ExxonMobil Mexico for nine years. Mr. Zozaya was National President of American Chamber Mexico from 2010 to 2012, becoming the first non-American to hold this important position. Currently, he is Vice President of American Chamber Mexico and of the Association of American Chambers of Commerce in Latin America (AACCLA), and a Member of the Board of Afore Siglo XXI and Ferrovial, SA de CV. In April 2013 he was appointed President of the Mexican Railroad Association (AMF). On November 2014, he is elected President of the Mexican Council of Transport (Consejo Mexicano del Transporte, CMET).

Manny Fernandez, Managing Partner
KPMG

He is an audit partner with 32 years of experience in multiple industries, and has worked with domestic, foreign, public, and private companies throughout his career. As the managing partner of KPMG's Dallas office, Mr. Fernandez's responsibilities include working with 100 partners and over 1,400 professionals on KPMG's commitment to client care, developing and retaining key resources and representing the firm in the marketplace and business community. Fernandez is active in corporate governance issues and serves as the moderator for KPMG's Audit Committee Institute Roundtable series in Dallas. He also serves as a member KPMG's National Diversity Advisory Board, the Boy Scouts Circle Ten Council, the Dallas Regional Chamber, the Dallas Citizens Council, and the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas, as an Alexis de Tocqueville Society member. Fernandez is also a member of and the Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting (ALPFA).

Cynthia Conner, Senior Policy Lead
British Consulate, Houston

Cynthia Conner is the Senior Policy Lead for the British Consulate, Houston and also shares her time as a member of the Global and Economic Policy Group at the British Embassy in Washington, DC. Cynthia's portfolio spans a range of UK policy priorities with a focus on international energy issues. She also leads the team's engagement with the oil and gas industry and Congress. Previously, Cynthia worked for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration at the Johnson Space Center Where she served seven years as a senior analyst supporting the Chief Financial Officer and the Office of Legislative Affairs

John V. Duca, Vice President and Associate Director of Research
Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas

Duca leads and conducts research in macroeconomics and finance for the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. He has been with the Bank since 1991. Duca has published more than 75 articles on money, credit, wages and housing in scholarly journals and Bank publications. From 1986 to 1991, Duca was a staff economist at the Federal Reserve Board, where he briefed former chairmen Alan Greenspan and Paul Volcker and other Fed policymakers. Additionally, he was a part-time lecturer at the University of Maryland. He is currently a part-time lecturer at Southern Methodist University, and is a Vice President of the International Banking, Economics, and Finance Association.

Juan Francisco Torres Landa, Office Managing Partner, Mexico City
Hogan Lovells

As a corporate lawyer for more than three decades, Juan Francisco Torres-Landa has helped many companies establish and grow a presence in Mexico. Torres-Landa sees the big picture and paves the way to better results and fewer obstacles. He serves clients in many industries, with a particular focus on the automotive sector. Companies rely on his insight that stems from decades of experience and thorough knowledge of corporate, contractual, foreign investment, environmental, antitrust, and tax matters. He is well known in the legal community for his responsiveness and careful, results-oriented approach along with his successful track record as a trouble shooter and his commitment to pro bono and citizenship programs.

Marcos Jimenez, CEO, USA and Canada
Softtek

Marcos Jimenez has been the CEO for Softtek USA and Canada since 2011. He joined Softtek in 1992, and quickly became a partner of the Banking Business Unit; which opened Softtek Peru. During this journey, he faced various challenging roles: a key entrepreneur in Peru, a sales leader in the U.S., and CEO for Softtek Spain and the U.K. Since 2004, he has been responsible for Sales and Marketing of Softtek USA, where he managed to double the company's profitability within a short time frame.

Vince Chapa, VP Sales IT Services
CenturyLink

Vince Chapa has a Business Degree from Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois. He has over 30 years of experience in the IT sector, beginning his distinguished career working at IBM. Mr. Chapa, also worked for companies such as Sterling Software, Kimberly Clark, KPMG, and Ernst & Young, building and leading sales forces in various U.S. and international areas, including responsibility for U.S., Mexico and Latin America. Today he is the Vice President of Sales and IT Services for CenturyLink. Mr. Chapa is a Member of the Advisory Board at Baylor University's Center for Professional Selling.

Chuck Easttom
Author and Consultant on Computer Security, Cryptography and Forensics

Chuck Easttom is a computer security and forensics expert. He has authored 20 books, including several on computer security, forensics, and cryptography. He holds 7 patents, and 40 computer certifications including many security and forensics certifications. He has conducted training and consulted for law enforcement, federal agencies, and friendly foreign governments. He frequently works as an expert witness in computer related cases

Sean Donohue, CEO
Dallas Fort Worth International Airport

Sean Donohue serves as Chief Executive Officer for Dallas Fort Worth (DFW) International Airport. He has been with DFW since 2013. As the chief executive of the fourth-busiest airport in the world, Mr. Donohue manages 1800 employees, an annual operating budget of $800 million, as well as a $3 billion capital improvement program. DFW Airport produces more than $37 billion in annual economic impact for the Dallas Fort Worth region, hosts 64 million customers each year, and provides service to more than 200 destinations on five continents. Prior to his arrival at DFW, Mr. Donohue served for three years as the Chief Operating Officer for Virgin Australia Airlines. Mr. Donohue also served for 25 years with United Airlines.

Holly Reed, Managing Director, External Affairs
Texas Central Partner, LLC

Holly Reed is the managing director, external affairs for Texas Central Partners, LLC. Holly leads all of our outreach, government relations and communications activities. Holly spent 25 years at AT&T and its predecessor companies, most recently as Regional Vice President of External Affairs. In this role, Holly was responsible for government affairs, working with local, state and federal officials on diverse business and technology issues and outreach to civic groups on the company's commitments to local communities. Holly has also held leadership positions in customer service, finance operations, data center operations, marketing and advertising.

Richard Byrnes, Chief Port Infrastructure Officer
Port of Houston Authority

Rich Byrnes is the Chief Infrastructure Officer for the Port of Houston Authority with responsibility to steward over $2B in physical assets. The Port of Houston Authority Infrastructure's areas of responsibility include facilities and master planning, strategic asset management, the non-federal role in Ship Channel Management, road and rail freight mobility, and environment. Rich has worked with Fortune 100 corporations, State-Owned Enterprises, and governments on every continent. He has managed supply chain and wintering over the South Pole and Antarctica. He has worked as an oil field engineer in the Middle East. Mr. Byrnes has consulted to ports and shipping companies in the East, West and Gulf Coasts, Latin America and Australia, and has worked petrochemicals clients in the Americas, Asia, Europe and Middle East. Rich was also a Clinical Professor of Leadership at Texas A&M's

Mays Business School.

Antonio Pérez, President & CEO
Talgo, Inc.

Mr. Antonio Pérez is President and CEO of Talgo Inc. the US subsidiary of Talgo since 2003. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Pérez served as Managing Director of Talgo America, the US. holding company for Talgo, Inc., Talgo LRC and Talgo TTA. He began his tenure with the parent company, Patentes Talgo, S.L., in Spain in 1994, where he was responsible for the firm's local and international project management initiatives. Mr. Pérez rose to become head of the International Sales Department, Corporate Projects Director and Corporate VP of Strategic Planning & Business Development.

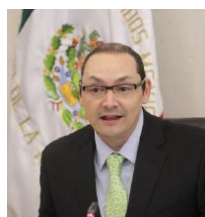

Amb. Juan Sosa, Consul General of Panama in Houston

Juan B. Sosa was the Ambassador of Panama to the White House in 1987. In February of 1988 he denounced Noriega's ousting of President Eric A. Delvalle and led a coalition of forces in the United States, in a fight to overthrow the dictatorial regime of Noriega. Ambassador Sosa has worked for Colgate Palmolive Company as an international marketing executive, served as Chairman of the Board of his own business and marketing consulting company, was Chairman of the Board of Air Panama, and was a Member of the Board of Directors of the Panama Canal Commission. In 1994 Amb. Sosa took the initial step for a U.S.-Panama Free Trade Agreement. He served as its CEO until August 2014 when he became President Emeritus. In November 2014 Ambassador Sosa was appointed Consul General of Panama in Houston, Texas with responsibility over Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas.

Francisco de la Torre Galindo
Consul General of Mexico in Dallas

Francisco de la Torre Galindo is the Consul General of Mexico in Dallas, Texas as of June 1st, 2016. He previously served as the Executive Director of the Institute for Mexicans Abroad at Mexico's Ministry of foreign Affairs, and has been a member of the Mexican Foreign Service since 1998.

He has served as Director of Legal Affairs at the Ministry's Directorate General for the Foreign Service and also as Director for South America at the Under- Secretariat for Latin America and the Caribbean.

His diplomatic experience includes having been in charge of the Political and Economic Affairs, Cooperation and Protection for Mexican citizens abroad at the Mexican Embassies in Brazil and Argentina.

Throughout his career he has participated in seminars and related forums with international, diplomatic and consular issues in more than 25 cities in the United States, and Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Paraguay, Chile, Venezuela, Great Britain, Ireland, Indonesia and Singapore.

Sara Wilshaw
Consul General of Canada to the South Central United States

Ms. Wilshaw joined the Public Service of Canada in 1993. She began her career with the Canada Border Services Agency, followed by Statistics Canada, before joining the Foreign Service in 1996. She has held assignments at the Canadian Embassy in Japan, managing Intellectual Property issues at the Permanent Mission of Canada to the WTO in Geneva, and oversaw Canada's commercial relations with South Asia as the Minister (Commercial). Ms. Wilshaw has held progressively senior positions covering East Asia, Multilateral Trade Policy, Human Resources Management, Strategic Policy, Corporate Social Responsibility, Trade Commissioner Service Support and as the Director-General in the Office of the Chief Trade Commissioner of Canada. She is currently the Consul General of Canada to the South Central United States, based in Dallas and covering Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Oklahoma.

DC PAGE, Sr. Vice President, Intl. Operations & Consulting Investigations
Andrews International

As Senior Vice President of the Consulting and Investigations division, D.C. Page is responsible for strategic leadership and oversight of Andrews International's worldwide C&I practice. Page has developed proprietary programs for multinational corporations and has crafted responsive client relationships with leaders of the world's most trusted brands and businesses. Page brings over 30 years of experience in both the private and government sectors. He served as CEO and Managing Partner of Verasys, LLC; Managing Director with Kroll Associates in Los Angeles and Miami; and Senior Special Agent with the United States Customs Service. Page was also a special investigator for the State of Wisconsin, infiltrating narcotics and organized crime operations. Page is an active member of ASIS International, the Overseas Security Advisory Council, and ICC FraudNet. An industry-leading expert, he has led many seminars for conferences for the International AntiCounterfeiting Coalition, ASIS International, OSAC, the American Bar Association, Abacus, OffShore

Alert, FDCC, Transparency International, and ICC FraudNet.

Michael Huston, Principal Director for the Americas
Office of Policy, Department of Homeland Security

Mr. Huston serves as the Principal Director for the Americas for the Office of Policy. He has had a hand in strategy and policy development; oversees and assists in the development of international policy, security, and border related matters; manages international engagements; and works directly with domestic interagency partners on matters of DHS interest. He spends most of his time focused on DHS engagement with Mexico. Previously, Mr. Huston was the Director, Mexican Affairs for the DHS Office of International Affairs (OIA). Prior to working as a civil servant, Mr. Huston taught High School English and worked in the newspaper industry. A published author, Mr. Huston's recent article, "Homeland Security as a Theory of Action: The Impact on U.S./Mexico Border Management", was co-authored with Alan Bersin and released by the Wilson Center.

Col. Eric A. Rojo-Stevens USArmy (Ret)
Director of Industry Projects at SLGlobal Energy Investments
Security Programs Coordinator, Center for Dialogue and Analysis on North America at Tecnológico de Monterrey (ITESM).

Colonel Eric Rojo-Stevens is lifelong security and international affairs professional, with a military career in the US Army spanning a wide range of roles from Vietnam to the Pentagon. In addition, he has provided a wide range of services to governments as a private sector consultant. He provides commentary and analysis for organizations and media including: Azteca America, CNN en Espanol, NTN24, MSNBC, RAI, Voice of America, CNN, NTN, Telemundo, BBC America, He is a graduate of the University of Maine, the Inter American Defense College, US National Defense University, and ITESM. Recently he received the Themis award from the Latin American Lawyers Foundation in recognition of his work in International Security and anticorruption. He is the Sr. Vice Commander in Chief of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

Rafael Alexandri, Vice President of Business Development
Estafeta USA

Rafael Alexandri is Vice President of Business Development for Estafeta USA, he was born in San Luis Potosi, Mexico, he studied Industrial and Systems Engineering in Monterrey, he also has studies in Strategic planning, marketing strategies, data processing, project management, geophysics and is an ISO-9001 and ISO-14000 quality auditor, during his career he has worked in companies like Vitro, Schlumberger, Seitel, Spectrum, ION, and now Estafeta USA.

Michael McCall, Chamber's Board of Directors
Greater Irving-Las Colinas Chamber of Commerce (GILCC)

As Labor Relations Director for Irving-based NCH Corporation, Michael McCall was selected to serve as Chairman for GILCC in 2015. McCall has served and advised on the Chamber's Executive Committee for 2 years. For more than a decade, Mike McCall has managed human resource functions for NCH Corporation, a global leader in industrial, commercial, and institutional maintenance products and services that employs more than 8,500 employees on six continents. McCall has spearheaded NCH's commitment and support of Irving schools for many years. He led the fundraising efforts for John R. Good Elementary through the school's annual "Golf for Good" tournament, raising $50,000.